ing in the country.

"It takes determination, courage and a strong business acumen to steer such high-profile brands in our market given the unique characteristics of the Filipino shopper. These success [illegible] employing Filipino talent make us so confident as PRA and DTI to honor Filipino retailers leading such businesses," said PRA president Fernando D. Co.

The first awardees of this category are [illegible] from [illegible] and [illegible], originally from North Carolina, USA.

Greenbelt 5 which was announced as the Shopping Center of the Year Medium category and SM North Edsa Shopping Center of the Year Large category were inducted into the Hall of Fame after winning for two consecutive years.

SM Baguio ties with Greenbelt in the Medium category while Robinsons Ilocos Norte took home the trophy for the small category.

Providing a strong competition to SM North EDSA were finalists Shangri-La Mall, SM City Bacoor and SM City Pampanga while Eastwood Mall was a finalist in the medium category.

The night was also highlighted by the presentation of the [illegible] President's Award, the highest distinction conferred by the PRA. This year, PRA honored Mariano Que, founder of Mercury Drug as Father of Health and Wellness Retailing. Mr. Que started his conglomerate from a humble start selling medicines through the [illegible] system – a novel selling method even at that time. Mr. Que joins other pillars of retail who have received the prestigious award, including Mr. Henry Sy, "Father of Philippine Retailing", Mr. Fernando Zobel De Ayala, "Pillar of Philippine Retail Development", Mr. Jorge L. Araneta, "Pioneer of Retail Entertainment", Mr. [illegible], "Maestro of Philippine Retailing", Mr. John L. Gokongwei Jr., "Champion of Retail Entrepreneurship", and [illegible], "Father of Luxury Retailing".

This year's event was made possible through the support of SM Investments, [illegible], The Philippine STAR, BusinessWorld, [illegible], R.O.X., Ayala Malls, Robinsons Malls, [illegible] and [illegible].

WATSONS IS PRA'S FOREIGN BRAND RETAILER AWARDEE

Watsons, Your Personal Store, was cited as the Philippine Retail Association's top Foreign Brand Retailer in the non-food category during the 2011 Outstanding Filipino Retailers of the Year Awards recently held at the Crowne Plaza Hotel.

A joint undertaking of the Philippine Retailers Association (PRA) and the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI), this annual awarding ceremony honors the best and brightest names in Filipino retailing.

This year marks the debut of the Foreign Brand Retailer category, which is given to retailers who have successfully managed foreign brands in the country. The expansion of the OFR category also reflects the changing landscape of retailing in the country.

"It takes determination, [illegible] and strong business acumen to stock such high profile brands in our market given the unique characteristics of the Filipino shopper," says PRA President Frederick Go. "The success of [illegible] Filipino talent made it incumbent for the PRA and DTI to honor Filipino retailers leading such businesses."

As the category's first awardee, Watsons offers a competitive advantage with its customer-centric store philosophy, positive image as a beauty authority and partner in health, wide network of retail stores nationwide, well-trained and motivated store personnel who provide advice and consultation, and its strong customer loyalty program, which is also the largest in the retail industry.

Watsons, Your Personal Store, is part of the Hong Kong-based AS Watson chain, the world's largest health, beauty and personal care retailer with its network of [illegible] stores across [illegible] countries.

In the Philippines, the first [illegible] stores opened at The Podium and SM Megamall in 2002. Since then, more than [illegible] stores have opened in more than [illegible] cities across the country, serving over [illegible] customers everyday.

Mercury Drug founder is Father of Health and Wellness Retailing

PRA Confers 7th President's Award to Mr. Mariano Que

Mercury Drug Corporation founder, Mr. Mariano Que recently received the distinction as the "Father of Health and Wellness Retailing" from the Philippine Retailers Association.

The recognition was conferred to Mr. Que for being a fundamental figure in the development of medicine retailing in the Philippines. Mercury, undoubtedly the biggest drugstore chain in the Philippines with 800 stores all over the country, started as a "bodega" or pushcart store in 1945, [illegible] to help. Mr. Que started peddling medicines through the "tingi" [illegible] of [illegible]. This [illegible] solved the problem of [illegible] medicines [illegible] of that period. From that idea came more innovations: the first pharmacy to have delivery services using motorized scooters (1960), the first 17-hour store operations which later led to the first 24-hour drugstore (1965), the first pharmacy store with biological refrigeration (1969), the nation's first self-service pharmacy (1970), and more recently phone assisted ordering, and even the country's pharmacy counseling services.

Over the years, the name Mercury became synonymous to affordable, high quality medicines. With the company's efforts to make their products and services within reach, this have now become easily accessible to Filipinos.

Mr. Que's dedication to his calling together with the widely unparalleled success of the company he built made it a unanimous decision for PRA officers to honor Mr. Que with the 7th PRA President's Awards. Mr. Que joins the illustrious list of past PRA President's awardees which include Mr. Henry Sy, "Father of Philippine Retailing", Mr. Fernando Zobel [illegible], "Pillar of Philippine Retail Development", Mr. Jorge L. Araneta, "Pioneer of Retail Entertainment", Mrs. Socorro Cancio Ramos, "Matriarch of Philippine Retailing", Mr. John L. Gokongwei, Jr. "Champion of Retail Entrepreneurship", and Amb. Bienvenido Tantoco Sr., "Father of Luxury Retailing".

Over the years, the name Mercury became synonymous to affordable, high quality medicines. With the company's efforts to make their products and services within reach, this have now become easily accessible to Filipinos.

NZPBC lifts the profile of Filipino businesses in New Zealand

By [illegible]

The New Zealand-Philippines Business Council (NZPBC), a group of Filipino businessmen and professionals, provides a network covering significant industry sectors in New Zealand which other business-minded Filipinos can tap into.

[illegible]

Since its formation last year, the NZPBC has been busy raising awareness of the growing number of Filipino entrepreneurs and professionals in New Zealand.

Considered as relatively new migrants in New Zealand, Filipinos started trickling into the country only in the late 1960s. Today, some 40,000 are in the country with about half of them living in Auckland, the economic capital.

Among the earliest businesses Filipinos started were those that catered to the community's needs, like the importation and distribution of Filipino food products.

[illegible]
